Pierluigi Salvo Rossi was born in Naples, Italy, on April 26, 1977. He received the Dr.Eng. degree in telecommunications engineering (summa cum laude) and the Ph.D. degree in computer engineering, in 2002 and 2005, respectively, both from the Univ. Naples "Federico II", Italy. From 2005 to 2008, he worked as a postdoc at the Dept. Computer Science & Systems, Univ. Naples "Federico II", Italy, at the Dept. Information Engineering, Second Univ. Naples, Italy, and at the Dept. Electronics & Telecommunications, Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU), Trondheim, Norway. From 2008 to 2014, he was an Assistant Professor (tenured in 2011) in telecommunications at the Dept. Industrial & Information Engineering, Second Univ. Naples, Italy. From 2014 to 2016, he was an Associate Professor in signal processing with the Dept. Electronics & Telecommunications, NTNU, Norway. From 2016 to 2017 he was a Full Professor in signal processing with the Dept. Electronic Systems, NTNU, Norway. Since 2017 he is a Principal Engineer with the Advanced Analytics & Machine Learning Team, Kongsberg Digital AS, Norway. He held visiting appointments at the Dept. Electrical & Computer Engineering, Drexel Univ., Philadelphia, PA, US, at the Dept. Electrical & Information Technology, Lund Univ., Sweden, at the Dept. Electronics & Telecommunications, NTNU, Norway, and at the Excellence Center for Wireless Sensor Networks, Uppsala Univ., Sweden. He is an IEEE Senior Member and serves as a Senior Editor for the IEEE Commun. Lett. (since 2016) and an Associate Editor for the IEEE Trans. Wireless Commun. (since 2015). He was an Associate Editor for the IEEE Commun. Lett. (from 2012 to 2016) and a Guest Editor for Elsevier Physical Commun. (2012). His research interests fall within the areas of communications and signal processing.
